

Study Buddies

Two of Judy's students meet once a week to watch and discuss Destinos.

Destinos is an excellent telenovela designed to teach Spanish. The fascinating story starts at a level first year students can understand and gradually progresses to higher levels. The episodes are captioned in Spanish and the website includes practice exercises to help you understand the episodes.

You can watch Destinos free by visiting the website at:

<http://www.learner.org/series/destinos/>

Find a study buddy or two and start on your journey around the world to discover the mystery of Don Fernando's past.

